A settlement has been reached in a class action alleging that Kohl's Department Stores, Inc. ("Kohl's") used false "regular" and "original" prices in advertising its products. Kohl's denies that it used false price comparison advertising or that it has done anything wrong. The Court has not decided who is right.

You are included in the Settlement as a "Class Member" if, while in California, you purchased one or more items advertised as 30% or more off the stated "original" or "regular" price from a Kohl's store or Kohls.com between June 11, 2011 and April 11, 2016, and you have not received a refund or credit for that purchase.

The Settlement will provide store credit in the form of Gift Card Credits to eligible Class Members who submit a valid Claim Form. The Gift Card Credits will be paid from what remains of a $6,150,000 settlement fund after deducting the costs of administering the settlement (up to $1,000,000), court-approved attorneys' fees and costs of up to 25% of the settlement fund ($1,462,500 in fees and costs up to $75,000), and a $7,500 payment to each Class Representative (Steven Russell and Donna Caffey). The amount of the Gift Card Credit will be determined by dividing the remainder of the Settlement Fund among Class Members who submit valid claims. A Gift Card Credit is store credit that may be used toward purchases at any Kohl's store or at Kohls.com. More than one Gift Card Credit may be used at a time and may be used in conjunction with other promotional discounts that are otherwise available with the use of gift cards. Gift Card Credits do not expire. You may give your Gift Card Credit to someone else, but it is not redeemable for cash, except where required by law.

To receive a Gift Card Credit, you must file a claim by August 9, 2016. Claim forms may be filed online, printed from the website and mailed to the address on the form, or obtained by calling 1-844-851-4589. If you file a claim or do nothing and the Court approves the Settlement, you will give up your right to sue Kohl's for any of the claims released in the Settlement. If you don't want to participate in the Settlement, you must exclude yourself by August 9, 2016. If you exclude yourself, you will not receive a Gift Card Credit, but you will keep your right to sue Kohl's individually for the same claims resolved by this Settlement. If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement, you may object and notify the Court that you or your lawyer intends to appear at the Court's Fairness Hearing. Objections are due August 9, 2016. For more information, including the Detailed Notice and Amended Settlement Agreement, call or go to the website below.

Kohl's Department Stores, Inc.*, Case No. 5:15-cv-01143-RGK-SP, on September 12, 2016. At the hearing, the Court will determine whether to approve: the Settlement; attorneys' fees and costs; and payments to the Class Representatives.
